Re: Request for Continuing Examination of Application Serial Number 10/666,189, filed September 10, 2003

Dear Ms. Short,

In response to your Notice of Non-Compliance mailed August 24, 2005, I am faxing to you a revised/compliant version of the claims amendment portion of the Request for Continuing Examination mailed August 1, 2005.

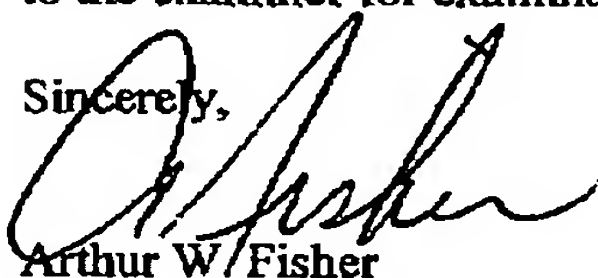

The changes made over that filing include the following:

- a.) I have changed the term "(Amended)" wherever it occurs to read "(Currently amended)";
- b.) I have changed the term "(Previously Presented)" wherever it occurs to read "(Previously presented)";
- c.) Since the examiner indicated in his Advisory Action mailed July 21, 2005 that the amendments requested in the July 11, 2005 action were not "entered", I have treated the April 14, 2005 amendments as the amendment of record for the purpose of "Previously presented, Currently amended and new" claims;
- d.) The text of claims 74 and 91 which are being canceled has been removed;
- e.) A cross out has been used for deletions instead of brackets except for punctuation where double brackets are now used; and
- f.) I have added another statement at the beginning of the claim amendments "1-51(Cancelled);

I have also included the Remarks Section with this fax. However, no changes have been made to that section except my email address which has changed. The other documents submitted with my August 1, 2005 mailing are not included with this fax. However, they remain part of this filing.

Please advise me ASAP if this has been received and if this is deemed acceptable for you to turn this over to the examiner for examination and my request for Formal Interview.

Sincerely,

Arthur W. Fisher
